Dear Bill:

You and your staff have been a major source of strength to me in my capacity as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Intelligence.

Your contributions to making the CFI an effective decision-making mechanism and your sound and timely advice on issues of major import to the United States intelligence program are very real accomplishments. Without your support and that of your staff my task as Chairman of the CFI would have been significantly more complicated.

Best wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
